CURRICULUM VITAE

Dr. Tamer Mahmoud Said Mahmoud was born in Alexandria, Egypt in 1972. He graduated from Alexandria Faculty of Medicine, Egypt in 1994 with an Excellent grade and Honors. He completed a residency in Dermatology, Venerology and Andrology, Alexandria University Hospitals in 1999. He also received his Master degree from Alexandria Faculty of Medicine in 1999. His Master thesis was entitled 'Assessment of Sperm Function Tests in Men with Unexplained Infertility'. He completed his four year post-graduate training at the Cleveland Clinic Foundation, Cleveland, Ohio where he worked as a Fellow and as a Research Associate. He received 6 grants from the Cleveland Clinic Research Programs Council to fund his male infertility research. He is also the recipient of the National Institutes of Health (NIH), Society for Male Reproduction and Urology (SMRU) and SCSA Diagnostics Travel awards. Dr. Said Mahmoud has published over 30 scientific papers and review articles in peer-reviewed scientific journals, authored 4 book chapters, and has presented more than 70 abstracts at both national and international scientific meetings. He is an ad hoc reviewer for several esteemed scientific journals such as the Journal of Andrology, Fertility & Sterility, and Biology of Reproduction, and the Journal of Assisted Reproduction and Genetics. In addition, he also acts as a Managing Editor in Frontiers of Bioscience journal. Dr. Said Mahmoud currently serves as the Director of the Andrology Laboratory and Reproductive Tissue Bank at the Toronto Institute for Reproductive Medicine, Toronto, Ontario, Canada.
